

PROFILES OF CANDIDATES FOR WARD 4

Kayce Munyeneh

Mrs. Munyeneh matriculated from Columbia College with a Bachelor's in Political Science and Georgetown University with a Masters in Leadership (Organizational Development). She was in the Honors College and graduated cum laude, cum honore, garnering membership in academic honor societies such as Alpha Lambda Delta and Golden Key International Honor Society.

Mrs. Munyeneh started her career as a Grants Management Specialist for the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, working on Violence Against Women's Act grants and compliance. She also worked in concert with the South Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (SCCADVASA) to support the Hope Lights Project for Sexual Assault Victims.

After relocating to the District of Columbia, Mrs. Munyeneh was hired as the first domestic violence victim advocate for the Metropolitan Police Department. Determined to build the Victim Services Program to a full fledge resource for victims, she worked with a team to address all victimization in the District of Columbia. Instrumental in creating what is now known today as the Victim Services Branch, she held positions with the Metropolitan Police Department and the National Center for Victims of Crime in full-time and part-time positions respectively while also serving as an Adjunct Professor for the Department of Homeland Security's FLETC Domestic Violence Intervention Program. She acted as a liaison inter-departmentally, created public policy and education initiatives, as well as advocated on behalf of victims of violent crime and vulnerable adults. In her tenure, she has served over forty thousand victims of crime.

Mrs. Munyeneh also extended her advocacy role to supporting her colleagues and staff when she was elected as Chief Shop Steward of the National Association for Government Employees. She served as a Certified EEO Counselor to all District of Columbia employees which laid the groundwork for labor management partnerships with the Metropolitan Police Department and the Department of Forensic Science. Mrs. Munyeneh ultimately transitioned into conducting investigations as an Employee Labor Relations Manager and contract EEO Investigator/Reviewer.

Ready for a new challenge, she joined the federal government and serves as a Program Manager for the Office of Civil Rights and Diversity and liaison for the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion team.

In her "spare" time, Mrs. Munyeneh serves as a Mount Hope Commission Board Member, Ward 4 Councilmember, and Vice Mayor for the Town of Cheverly and volunteers in her respective sororities, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated and Order of the Eastern Star. She is the proud wife of Alonzo and mom of her rambunctious son, Justice.
